RE; Jamie Arion, Advocare

To whom it may concern,

I have known Jamie Arion for six months and can attest that she is a consummate professional. She brings tremendous knowledge and passion to her work. In every business dealing I have had with her, she has been well prepared and exceedingly helpful.

I have bought several of her products for my daughter who plays collegiate soccer and her products have exceeded my daughter's expectations. The Advocare product line is well researched, really works and is affordable.

Jamie Arion, in summary, is:

- Knowledgeable
- Empathetic
- Enthusiastic
- Committed
- Driven
- Passionate
- Honest

I recommend Jamie Arion wholly and without reservation.
