Re: Venis Sims, Edgewood Realty Group

To whom it may concern:

The property buying, selling, or managing experience can be a daunting task depending on the representation that you have overseeing the process. I have the fortunate benefit of professionally interacting with Venis Sims of Edgewood Realty Group weekly, and am frequently amazed at the amount of options she provides to her clients in their quest for homeownership. I strongly recommend hiring Edgewood Realty group for your real-estate and property management needs if you desire:

- Accessibility to various programs and resources that impacts your purchase or selling experience, and a realtor who is committed to your end goal.
- A knowledgeable and resourceful realtor who doesn't allow her clients to face their transitions alone. Venis goes above and beyond to ensure a seamless process to the very end of the contract.
- An experienced agent who is connected throughout Greater Atlanta to quality lenders, associations, contractors, and service agents. (It helps to know you can call one person to sell your home, get it painted, and get you moved based on their contacts.)

From my own personal observation I know that Venis is highly intelligent, talented, and most of all capable of delivering quality service for your realtor needs.

Sincerely,

Ebonique L. Barber
