Curtis Turner
Executive Ideas, Inc.

Dear Curtis,

I'm writing to provide my official endorsement for you as an expert Medicare, and health insurance advisor. As one of your Executive Ideas clients, I can attest to your skill, and professionalism.

Scott and I needed to migrate from our previous plan provided by Scott's corporate employer to a marketplace plan once we purchased our own small business. The healthcare marketplace offers an overwhelming number of options. Curtis, you guided us to an option that would prioritize the things important to us, while also providing value.

I believe that your patience, attention to detail, and knowledge gleaned from your many years of experience will be vital to those seeking these same services in the future. I can confidently refer other new small business owners to you for their marketplace health insurance needs!

Thank you!
