On March 4th of 2024, my truck broke down on the side of a one lane road at 10pm on a Saturday night. It was just myself and my golden retriever that were stuck on the side of the road, hoping no one would hit us. We eventually got a tow truck to pick us up and now it was time to decide on a new vehicle. I had no idea where to start, what to look at, what deals were out there, what dealership is best. The questions go on and on. After being referred to Doug Ross, I gave him a call and explained everything I need and want in a vehicle. After our initial phone call, Doug provided me with a few brands and models that would fit my transportation needs. Along with this, he provided multiple consumer reports to show me what others have experienced with the same car. Once I decided to test drive a few vehicles, Doug lined everything up. And I mean everything. He scheduled the appointments with the dealerships, made sure the exact vehicles I wanted to test drive were there, and once I decided to move forward with a vehicle, he negotiated on my behalf and got the dealer to come down on the price. For a process that would have taken over ten plus hours from start to finish, Doug not only saved me money but saved me hours of my time. Now I am driving my brand-new vehicle with peace of mind and not having to worry about breaking down. I cannot recommend Doug enough to help with a new vehicle purchase. He is the perfect starting point for anyone who is looking to shop for a new vehicle.
