Dear Darrell:

As a web development firm, our biggest worry is not creating the websites, but providing safe, secure and reliable site and email hosting for our clients. We quickly found that we needed a network and server expert to oversee this service for us. And we found that expert in you.

Our alliance allows us to focus on the things we are good at, knowing that our servers, software, data security and email spam protection are in your capable hands.

Thank you for your vigilance on our behalf. I will continue to refer Emerald Data Networks to clients and colleagues, as they express a need.

Warmest regards,

Jill Pullen
