Re: Endorsement Letter – Ben Levy
Wetherington Law Firm

To Whom It May Concern:

When a client of mine suffered serious injuries in the lobby of her condominium, she was understandably distressed and overwhelmed. An innocent bystander, she had been hurt due to someone else's recklessness, and she was seeking a personal injury attorney who would truly advocate for her.

I reached out to Ben Levy to see if this case aligned with his work. He asked thoughtful questions, listened carefully, and assessed the situation with empathy and clarity. Once he determined it was a potential fit, he offered to speak with her directly—and handled everything with the levelheadedness and care I've come to associate with his practice.

The legal process is still ongoing, but my client has expressed her satisfaction with Ben's professionalism and dedication—especially when compared to other attorneys she consulted. I feel relieved knowing she's in capable, compassionate hands. I trust Ben to be a strong advocate for people at their most vulnerable, and I'm proud to refer him.

Sincerely,

Barry E. Edwards, II
