Dear Traveler,

Why plan that vacation on your own when Gina will do it for you? No matter what you have in mind, from a simple weekend getaway to the trip of a lifetime, Gina Hill, Travel Advisor, adds value and joy to your itinerary.

In my case, it was the trip of a lifetime. My 19-year-old daughter has “always” wanted to go to Japan. When I learned that the World Expo 2025 would take place in Osaka, I knew it was time to go!

In December 2024, my daughter and I made the decision to visit Japan for two weeks in May of 2025. We had a narrow window that worked with our schedules. My daughter said, “It takes a year to plan a trip to Japan.” I replied, “Gina can do it.” And she did!

Working with our wish-list of must-see locations, Gina prepared the perfect itinerary that balanced time on our own and touring days with English-speaking guides. Because of these excellent guides, we saw places we would never have had the skill to navigate, including my bucket list item, Naoshima, Japan’s famous - yet remote and hard to reach - art island.

Working on a budget, Gina helped us avoid expensive, touristy attractions. We stayed in Osaka, Kyoto, and Tokyo. Our transitions were easy. When you don’t speak the language, there’s nothing more reassuring than having a driver or tour guide waiting for you, ready to make it easy to get where you need to be.

My daughter and I will treasure this experience. Her two younger sisters are asking where and when they get to do something similarly grand. I don’t know the answer to that, but I do know that Gina Hill will be with me when the time comes, planning every step.

Your fellow traveler,

Jennifer Tipping
