To Whom It May Concern,

I can wholeheartedly endorse Ron Goodnow and his company, Painter1, for residential painting. I speak from personal experience after Ron's crew did an excellent job painting all three floors of my townhome's interior. In addition to the high quality of the workmanship, Ron's crew went all out on prepping the areas, taking great care to tape and cover my furniture, cabinets, floors, etc.. The attention to detail in their prep work is one of the main reasons for my satisfaction. They treated my home as if it were their own, and there were no mishaps.

Ron takes it upon himself to be the face of the company and meet his prospective customers at their homes for free estimates. He generates new business by word of mouth, so customer satisfaction is his top priority. Unlike other paint companies who will dodge your call once their taillights disappear from your driveway, Ron will send his crew back if any of the work is not done to a customer's liking. Luckily, this was not an issue for me since his crew did excellent work on my home, but it was nice to know that he stands by his work.

When I hired Ron and his crew at the peak of a very busy time for home remodeling and refreshing, I was shocked at how quickly he was able to schedule me. When I asked how he was able to fit my project in so soon - when other painters did not have availability for weeks - he explained that he has seven crews at his disposal. This is the secret to his flexibility and speed!

I cannot say enough good things about Ron Goodnow and Painter 1. On top of the fantastic work and end results, Ron is a genuine good guy. He's honest, hard working, diligent, and he makes sure his customers are happy so that they'll refer their friends and family, as I have.

Sincerely,

Benjamin Z. Levy, Esq.
