There are any number of pest control companies to choose from. What differentiate Chris Quay of Fewer Bugs from the rest is service. I have been a customer of Chris' for twelve years and have always experienced great service.

Over the years I have had a number of odd situations requiring Chris's services, including birds in the attic. In that case, Chris worked his way to a nearly inaccessible area of my attic, removed two yard bags of birds nest material and sealed the access point. This was also in the heat of the Summer when the attic was sweltering.

What I have not experienced in all these years with Chris is a bug problem. Fewer Bugs really does ensure fewer bugs.

Sincerely,
