SoCu Kitchen – Catering

This holiday season as the plans piled on and things got busy, I went ahead and ordered my Thanksgiving sides from Lauren. We had family plans to travel before and I knew time wouldn't be on my side when it came to cooking time.

We ordered the scalloped potatoes (which everyone devoured and said was their favorite), green bean casserole, corn casserole, cornbread dressing and cranberry sauce. The cranberry sauce was so good I could just eat it with a spoon – delicious.

As Thanksgiving neared, my grandmother ended up needing to go to the hospital for emergency surgery. With most of my family out of town at the time, my brother and I were taking turns staying with her and updating everyone else on her status.

It was a blessing that I had already planned and ordered our food with Lauren. She even offered to meet me and bring the food to me. When I saw Lauren, I gave her a huge hug. I was so relieved that I wasn't going to have to stress over the meal, able to visit with my grandmother longer and still have a delicious made from scratch meal to serve on Thanksgiving Day.

I had no idea what was coming when I originally ordered the food, but I am thankful that I did. Lauren provided everything we needed for a wonderful holiday dinner. I would absolutely recommend SoCu Kitchen to anyone when they mention holiday stress and meal prep or hosting an event.
