To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to provide my full endorsement of Drew Niess of the Allstate Drew Niess Agency for his exceptional service, professionalism, and ability to deliver meaningful value to his clients.

I initially reached out to Drew while in need of a homeowner's insurance quote as my existing policy was approaching renewal. Over the prior three years, I had watched my premiums steadily increase without any clear or satisfactory explanation. Given my own background in the insurance industry, I had previously inquired with my then-current agent and was essentially told, "it is what it is—rates are just going up." That response left much to be desired.

I provided Drew with my existing coverage details and simply asked whether he could offer comparable coverage at a slightly better rate. Quite frankly, I was anticipating perhaps a modest annual savings of $200–$300. Instead, Drew returned with a quote that was $1,200 per year less than my current premium—and this was before I even received my official renewal notice. When the renewal finally arrived, the difference became even more substantial. Drew's policy ultimately came in approximately $2,400 less than the renewal rate I had been presented with.

Needless to say, when it came time to renew, my wife and I made the strategic decision not to continue with our previous carrier. We instead chose to initiate a new homeowner's policy with Drew Niess. Beyond the impressive financial savings, what truly stood out was the level of communication, transparency, and personal attention Drew provided throughout the process.

Thank you, Drew, for delivering not only strong coverage and competitive rates, but also for establishing a relationship built on trust and accessibility. Having an agent who is both knowledgeable and personally invested in our needs provides a level of confidence that is invaluable. Drew Niess has earned our loyalty, and he will be our agent for years to come.

Sincerely,

Derrick J. Wilson, WRT
