

ENDORSEMENT LETTER

Jennifer Flores

Owner, Healthy Solutions 4U
Leader & Coach, PowerCore

To My PowerCore Family and Business Professionals,

It is my honor to formally endorse Jennifer Flores as an exceptional leader, connector, and coach within the PowerCore community.

Jennifer brings intentionality, strategy, and genuine care to every professional relationship she builds. As the owner of Healthy Solutions 4U, she understands the importance of service and long-term impact. Inside PowerCore, she translates that same commitment into helping members grow, connect, and succeed.

Jennifer does not simply exchange referrals she builds meaningful bridges. She listens carefully, identifies opportunities quickly, and connects professionals in ways that create measurable momentum. When she introduces two people, it is thoughtful, purposeful, and rooted in mutual growth.

As a coach, Jennifer leads with both strength and grace. She challenges members to clarify their Commander's Intent, sharpen their messaging, and elevate their referral language. At the same time, she encourages, supports, and holds us accountable to higher standards. Her leadership fosters confidence, collaboration, and consistent improvement.

Personally, Jennifer has been a strategic sounding board and an encourager in my professional journey. Her insight has helped refine my focus and strengthen how I present my business within the PowerCore structure. Her influence is practical, empowering, and impactful.

Jennifer embodies the core values that make PowerCore effective trust, relationship-building, accountability, and shared success.

If you are seeking a connector who multiplies opportunity, a coach who develops leaders, and a professional who genuinely invests in others' growth, I confidently recommend Jennifer Flores.

When Jennifer connects you, you do not simply gain a contact you gain momentum.

With appreciation,

Etheline Valmond
