To whom this may concern:

I highly recommend Domonique O. Downing, owner of Big Frog Custom T-Shirts, to any business owner looking to elevate their brand through custom apparel.

From the start, Domonique and the team took their time to truly understand my vision. They didn't just print a design — they helped refine and redesign my logo to make sure it represented my brand at a higher level.

I came in with a unique idea for a custom vest and wasn't even sure if it could be done. Not only did they make it happen, but they executed it with quality and attention to detail that exceeded my expectations.

The shirts they created have become a part of my daily uniform. Every time I wear them, I feel a new level of confidence representing my company. That's the real value — it's not just apparel, it's how you show up.

They even went a step further and created a posing mat for me, which adds another layer of professionalism to my brand presence.

If you're serious about how your business looks and feels in the real world, Big Frog is the partner you want.

Best Regards
