Dear Jill Pullen,

Thank you very much for developing the web site for Origin Title and Escrow. We have been using it heavily for about three months now and it is working great. My clients are more than impressed. A new client wrote me to tell me that the web site we have set up is a "kick ass system" and they love it.

Often, real estate settlements get delayed because a processor never received a certain document or something got lost in the shuffle. With Origin Title, they simply can look on-line to print the document they need for their underwriter instead of waiting for a fax or e-mail.

All our regular clients can now order title and check status anywhere they have internet access. We love the web site just as much as our clients. Adding new users is simple and easy. You have been very responsive in making and changes and fixes. Thank you again for everything.

Sincerely,

John C. Bennett
