Re: One Call

Dear John:

You are my first call for real estate expertise. It's one thing to refer a prospective client outside your area of expertise to another attorney. It's another thing to rely upon that attorney for your own needs. You are my top referral choice and my personal counsel.

I have referred clients to you for title searches and property transfers. You have helped me confirm property tax payments, homestead exemptions and tax liens for clients. In every instance, you returned my calls promptly and followed up immediately with an answer or action item.

When I needed to help my family transfer an out-of-state property, you were of course the first person I called. You referred me to a capable and responsive attorney (in western Michigan!) who handled the matter for us. I was able to help my uncle protect his family's greatest asset upon his death. I could have never made it happen without your help.

Your service is invariably fast, professional, thorough and fairly priced. I know I will refer you again to my clients and call upon you myself. I recommend you without reservation.

Sincerely,

Anson H. Asbury, Esq.
