Dear Tricia,

In this day and age, I have come to realize that an online presence with reviews is VITALLY important to my business. I am a very busy, top producing Realtor. I have many clients that have wonderful things they say about me and they refer me to family and friends. However, I have noticed that it is very difficult for me to obtain written reviews from them and many times if I do get a review it is fairly short and generic.

When I spoke to you about assisting with testimonials from my clients, I got very excited. You had a very clear and easy process for obtaining testimonials. You made it easy for me and, even better, you made it incredibly easy and convenient for my clients. The process was clear and straight forward with minimal inconvenience to my clients. The testimonials got to the heart of why my clients were overjoyed with my services in a short, concise paragraph. Each testimonial touched me deeply and established the essence of exactly why I do what I do.

I cannot thank you enough for taking the stress off of my clients and giving them a voice as to why they are my raving fans. Each one has thanked me for giving them the ability to express their thoughts without the stress of what to write, how to write it, and finding the time to work it all out. They have all been pleased with the process and how easy it was to provide their feedback about working with me. The best part is that I have been given the ability to have an online presence to be proud of with nearly zero time investment on my part or the part of my clients.

Sincerely,
