Jason Wilson,
Wilson Realty Team

Jason,

My brother had an awesome opportunity to go on a mission trip. Because of the changes in his life he also needed to sell his home. The complication was that he needed to sell it very quickly before he left for the mission trip. That's where you stepped up!

You not only gave him the guidance on how to do it but also on how to get the best value! I am confident that without your expertise the house would not have sold for the amount it did and most likely not sold within the time needed.

With my brother permission, I can say that Jason and his team went above and beyond all the expectations that my brother had and that I had hoped for. Without a doubt, Jason is a great resource for anyone looking to buy or sell a house!

Thank you,
