Jason,

We had a perfect experience with Ursula and Associates. We would not change a thing! Jason and the rest of the team had everything handled from the beginning. He is such a knowledgeable person; he is an expert in his field and is familiar with so many others. He sold our house quicker than we ever imagined and sold us our dream! Any complications that came about were already handled or had options to be handled before we even knew about them. Jason and Brooke kept us informed and were in constant and clear communication with us throughout the whole process. We could not have asked for a better experience! If you need someone you can trust through the entire home buying process, Jason and the Ursula and Associates team is the place to go!!
