Dear Anya,

Thank you so much for excelling at your job!

Working in the mortgage industry, I've had experience working with insurance agents for years. When speaking with Anya, I experienced something for the first time.

Of course, Anya asked all of the standard questions one would expect when getting home and car insurance quotes. After we got past those questions, Anya had a few more... and a few more. I didn't realize how Anya was getting my information to compare carriers for very specific details. As a broker, Anya has access to more than just one company. By getting these specific details, Anya was able to find a carrier that fit me specifically at the best rate.

Our phone call was roughly 10 minutes, and then two days later I'm presented with multiple insurance carriers. Anya was able to lower my home and auto premiums by 33%, and it was with insurance carriers I recognized!

Anya – thank you for working with me through the process. It was a great experience, and I know how to refer my clients and friends to you so they can receive excellent coverage at a great rate with wonderful service!

Sincerely,
