To whom it may concern,

I am writing to recommend Greg McCahan as your personal business banker. You certainly have a banker now, but if you are not banking with Greg McCahan with Piedmont Bank, you do not know what you are missing.

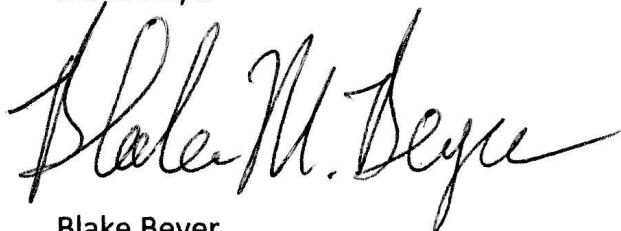

Since starting my banking relationship with Greg, he has bent over backward to deliver service you would not expect or ask for. When payroll accidentally overdrew my account by a few dollars, Greg put $20 in to my account to cover the shortfall and waived any fees. He even tried to get me to not pay him back by saying it was his pleasure!

During the Covid-19 quarantine, my consulting company was dead in the water since all of the prospective consulting contracts dried up as companies buckled down and managed their costs. Greg helped me navigate Piedmont Bank's paperwork for a Payroll Protection Plan (PPP) loan, and immediately informed me of any additional paperwork or information that was needed to fast track my loan through the approval process. He made it seem easy, and I was approved very quickly for the amount I requested.

I highly recommend and appreciate Greg for his concierge-level service and genuine care for me and my business.

Regards,

Blake Beyer
