To Whom It May Concern:

For anyone needing window cleaning services, I can highly recommend Greg Jordan of Fish Window Cleaning.

The windows in our home were an embarrassment. The older windows had not been cleaned in longer than I will publicly admit and the new, replacement windows, in a portion of our home, were still covered with the factory labels and paint spray.

Greg sent his crew to clean the windows and remove the paint spray and labels. They were quick and efficient and the work was reasonably priced.

My thanks to Greg and his team for a job well done.

Regards,
Ed
