Annie,

I am truly impressed in how you go above and beyond for your clients. When someone uses you as their real estate agent, they are getting an advocate and friend for life.

This was evident this past week when Mr. and Mrs. L called my office after their home and vehicle was damaged by the recent wind storm. Never in my 17 years have I had a real estate agent contact me after a closing- let alone a year after the home was purchased. You went out of your way to send photos for them and check in on them. Where many would simply move on after making a commission check from their closing- you are still there- helping them along the way. This speaks volume about the pride you take in your work.

You are a wonderful asset to your clients and a great supporter of those in need around are community. Thank you for making Peachtree City a wonderful place to live and raise a family.

I can't image a more dependable, trustworthy and devoted real estate agent to sell or a list a home with. You are top notch!!

Gratefully,
