To whom it may concern,

When I joined PowerCore I had a big problem. I had just gotten engaged and had no idea what to get my wife for a wedding present. Luckily for me Amanda is my coach on the Sandy Springs team where I found out she painted pet portraits. That's when I had my "Aha!" moment. The only thing my wife might love more than me is her cat, so I'll commission her to paint Ace Jr. Beans.

The process from commissioning to receiving the painting was seamless. The only requirement I had was to send her pictures of Ace. Amanda helped me in picking the one that showed his personality but more importantly one that didn't show his fluffiness. She gives updates and pictures along the way to show her progress. When completed, she delivered it to my office and even wrapped it for me!

The painting turned out wonderfully and my wife loves it. It is now the centerpiece in our home displayed prominently when you walk through the front door. I highly recommend Amanda for anyone looking to commission a painting.

Thank you, Amanda.

Sincerely,
