

I am happy to endorse Matt Hirsch Esq., defense attorney. I have been on the Emory Team for over a year and have learned a lot about what to do and not to do in potential legal situations from Attorney Hirsch. He always presents interesting, informative and pertinent information.

My wife was in a minor accident recently and was given a ticket for improper lane change. She was worried that this incident may add points to her license. She was wondering should she admit guilt and pay the fine. Should she show up in court and fight it.

I knew to call Matt Hirsch. He said send me the ticket and don't worry. Matt is a too the point kind of guy. His responses are usually 10 words or less. I sent him the ticket. He said "got it, don't worry." I sent him another email stating that we would be out of town on the court date. Matt said, "Don't worry, I will change the date." He changed the date. Another email. "Get you wife to complete this form and have it notarized." Oh yeah and don't worry. "

I sent him the forms. Matt said pay this amount to the court. There will be no points added and the charge was lessened.

Matt made this whole process easy. It did not take much of my time and almost none of my wife's time. Throughout the process you know what I did not do, worry

I highly recommend Matt Hirsch if you want to take the worry out of your legal situation.

Eldred B. Taylor, M.D.