Dear Persephone,

Thank you so much for all of your help in finding our new house. When my fiancé and I decided it was time to blend our families and our homes we knew that we wanted the timing to line up with our summer wedding. I recommended you because of our long association in PowerCore and my fiancé happily agreed.

As I anticipated, working with the you was a great experience. We were so impressed with your responsiveness and your upbeat attitude even in a tough sellers market. You talked with us about various listings and accommodated our schedule when it came to seeing different homes.

When we found a home we really liked, you helped us negotiate a final price with the seller that worked for us and that got the deal done. Your knowledge of the industry and the process made an overwhelming task feel much easier. And you're still supporting us and answering our questions post Closing!

I will happily recommend you to anyone looking for a great realtor. Looking for a new house while running a business, planning a wedding, and raising our kids was a lot to take on, but you made it very doable and we are so excited about moving into our new home. Thank you for everything.

With Appreciation,

Katie Sparks
