Dear Diane:

I'm not a hoarder, and I'm not obsessive/compulsive, so I never imagined having the need to hire you for your organizing expertise. I am, however, an extremely busy professional with little time for organizing closed out client files, which over the years have accumulated in a spare room of my home. When it reached a point where there was no more floor space available, and unstable piles of files were teetering on the edge of collapse, I realized it was time to do something. The mere thought of cleaning up this up this mess, however, was overwhelming; it would take me three (3) days to perform this arduous task. I decided to consult you for help.

You showed up with scores of boxes, a labeler, and a loading dolly truck. You assessed the situation taking into consideration my needs and priorities, and you knew exactly what to do. Three (3) hours later all files were boxed, organized, labeled, and stored in the attic, with a system in place for efficient handling of future files and for disposing of files over ten years old. All of this was accomplished without exposing any confidential client information. The room is now clear, and I am motivated to keep it that way.

Thank you, Diane, for your help, advice, expertise, and for an outstanding job. You really do provide "Simple Work Solutions", and I highly recommend you.

Sincerely,

Paul Shimek III,
