Dear Stacie,

I just cannot say enough about the value of your services. As a Realtor, I have found that my sellers can easily get overwhelmed with the home selling process. One of the things that becomes a significant stress for them is the need to declutter and stage their home. They do not know where or how to begin. Your incredibly calm and quietly professional demeanor immediately put them at ease. With a brief tour of the home you already know what needs to be done and how to execute it. I love that you have a range of services and price points that allow each of my clients to remain within a budget and still accomplish all that they need in order to have a home that shows well and sells quickly on the market.

I have referred you to clients that cannot say enough about your suggestions, your professionalism, or your respect for their time. I have seen the homes before and after your work and the transformations are astounding. The most amazing part to me is how quickly your suggestions and plans can be executed for such incredible results. The look of relief on my clients face as they experience the ease of getting their home show ready with a professional brings me joy. Thank you for helping me be a superstar for my clients when I get their home sold quickly for more money because it is staged to appeal to a wide audience and to show off the home's attributes.

I know with extreme confidence that I can refer any of my clients to you and they will be treated with respect and care in regards to their needs and their time. I consider you a member of an invaluable team of people that help my provide a wide range of services for my clients so that they can accomplish their real estate goals. I cannot thank you enough for your beautiful work and attention to detail.

Sincerely,
