Dear Andrew,

We were having some grout bout and closet conflicts in our house. Yes, that means problems with the tile grout in the main bathroom and trouble keeping the clothes racks on the walls in more than one closet.

We placed a call for some advice and an estimate and you arrived as quickly as your scheduled allowed. The estimate arrived later that evening and we scheduled your services for the next week. You arrived and within the three hours you had estimated, all of the closet conflicts were repaired with screws in to the studs (something the builder didn't do) and the grout bout in the main bath was handled.

We're happy to say that you lived up to your promises and we would highly recommend your services to anyone who needs a handyman.

Thank you,
