

Life Balance Power

September 10, 2015

*Carrie Jones,
The Hive Solution*

Dear Carrie,

Having an assistant is a big milestone for a new entrepreneur like me. Answering phone calls, scheduling and confirming appointments, following up on messages, emails and texts eats up a lot of my precious time. Precious time that could be spent helping a client or meeting a new prospect. But, I never really realized how much these small tasks took up my attention, energy and memory until I hired The Hive Solution.

The peace of mind that someone is answering my phone and handling the store front of my business has been priceless. Here is how my business has enhanced after hiring The Hive Solution:

1. I have taken a vacation with my son and returned to a full schedule / no downtime.
2. I am able to fully focus on my work/client knowing the phone has been answered.
3. It has given me at least 2 hours / day to start blogging and expanding my business.
4. I have streamlined my business systems and processes to create space for expansion.
5. Most of all, I can breathe. Feel relaxed and peaceful.

Thank You Carrie Jones. The Hive Solution's staff Jessica and Michelle have been a valuable support for my business. The service you provide is just what I need to expand my business.

Life Balance Power is expanding because of you and I thank you for your services.

With Gratitude,
Archana Patel
