

TRUE SOURCE FAMILY CHIROPRACTIC

4/3/2018

Grabbing someone's attention is necessary and vital with promotional work. When I previously needed to have posters printed for an upcoming event, I would begrudgingly shop around the well-known online stores, make an ill attempt at slapping together a design for a flyer or sign, then anxiously waited for over a week for the order to be shipped out. After the second week of waiting on the arrival of my purchase, the original anticipation morphed into grief, then anger; all the while hoping the posters were error free and the format was up to snuff.

Instead of going through the misery of that scenario again when it was time to make new event posters, I turned to Eleanor Thompson with ARTS printing.

Boy was I'm glad I did....

Not only was Eleanor able to print the posters at a significantly lower price than the online outfits advertise, they were also a much better quality. The service was top-notch, communication was lightning fast, and the turnaround time seemed too good to be true. ARTS Printing even went the extra mile to ensure I had those items delivered to my doorstep in a couple of days after the original order was placed.

For this reason, I wanted to take the opportunity to express my gratitude and say, "thank you" for providing exceptional and professional service. I look forward to sending more of my projects your way and enthusiastically referring your printing expertise to my distinguished clients.
