Dear Curtis,

Your expertise in the confusing and intimidating field of health insurance is beyond expectation. The effort you put into health care supplements and life insurance for me has allowed me to sleep better at night. Thank you so much for the time and effort you put into finding the best alternative for me and my family.

It is always good to know that any friend or associate referred to you will be treated with respect and a professionalism that is beyond reproach. Thanks for being my health insurance guy.

Sincerely,
