Dear Kelly:

I want to take this opportunity to tell you what a pleasure it was to work with you.

At the end of November I found myself with a vacancy in one of my residential rental properties. In the past I would “put the word out” among my friends and neighbors and eventually I would find the right tenant. This time, however, I chose to do it right and reached out to you, a real estate professional.

The process could not have been easier. You met with me to collect the details of my property and learn what I was looking for in terms of rental income. In what felt like the blink of an eye the property was listed online with plenty of pictures to capture the attention of would be renters.

You fielded the calls, handled the showings and found me the right tenants at the right price. The screening and lease signing couldn't have been easier for me. A few clicks here, a few clicks there and next thing you know you were delivering the security and first month rent payments to me.

Thank you for your professionalism and attention to detail. No more “do it yourself” for me. From now on you will be the one and only call I make when I have a rental vacancy.

Sincerely,

Peter J. Tarantino CPA
