Dear PowerCore:

Not long ago Robert Slocum started working on our deck that needed some spacing due to the old generation Trex. After a great deal of effort, he determined that we needed to replace the boards with new ones.

Today, we now have a beautiful new TimberTech deck that is spaced properly for drainage and has no screws in the actual boards.

Robert is helpful and trustworthy. He does his work in a professional manner.

Nancy and I really appreciate all of Robert's work.

Regards,

Curtis L. Turner III
