

As a small business owner, I am constantly on the move driving around Metro-Atlanta for networking events, meetings, etc. I last went to a shop and found I was almost 5,000 miles over my oil change and finally decided to set time aside and get it done. I went to a shop, sat around for 3 hours, and went on with my day.

When Christopher Allen of Valet Oil Changes performed my oil changes, it was such a different experience. Christopher goes above and beyond to offer the absolute best service.

While I was at home working, Christopher got my keys, performed an oil change, gave it a quick health check, and gave me the results and the keys. ALL WHILE I WAS WORKING FROM HOME.

The difference here is I no longer need to remember how many miles I am over. I don't need to wait 3 hours in a shop wasting my time. Christopher also now knows the history of my car, he saw that the last oil change shop missed that my car did not have an air filter.

I 100% recommend Christophers' service to anyone who owns a car. He is incredibly kind and caring. He is on time and accountable.
