In my eighteen years of experience as a real estate closing attorney, I have found Fidelity Bank to be a great lender. Recently, I had the privilege of closing a refinance for one of their loan officers, Kevin Jones. He was very much on top of and involved in the process. He made sure his clients were well informed about the specifics of their loan every step of the way. When I went over the closing documents with the clients everything was as they expected. Thanks to Kevin's thoroughness, the closing was smooth and on schedule. I would gladly recommend Kevin to a friend or family member needing a mortgage for a home purchase or a refinance.

Sincerely,
