Endorsement for Randy Beck of Beckshot

I've had the opportunity to work with Randy Beck on a couple of occasions and I've been thoroughly impressed by not only his knowledge of videography, but of his skill in facilitating engaging interviews and creating dramatic real estate portraits.

Randy utilizes a cinematographic flair in his videography that draws the viewer in as he guides them on a visual tour of a building.

He also has a knack for putting people at ease to showcase them at their best in an interview.

I am happy to have such a high quality referral at my fingertips for anyone who needs a great videographer.
