To whom it may concern,

I have maintained a professional relationship with Vance for over 4 years and I also like to refer him as my friend. Over all this time, I have seen Vance work hard for his clients. He goes above and beyond for them, provides them with valuable advice and guides them through tough the process of applying for a home loan.

I have also seen him give his clients the dream of homeownership. This is the case of my little sister. She was in the market to buy her very first home. Being the first time going through this process, she was naturally skittish. Vance gave her peace of mind and assured her that she could afford the home of her dreams without feeling stressed about it after the closing of her loan. He also advised her on the best way to maintain her finances so there would not be issues qualifying for her loan before the closing date. Now, she is a happy homeowner and is one hundred percent in love with her home but the best thing about it is that she feels very comfortable about her biggest financial decision.

If you are in the market for a new home, investment property, or thinking about refinancing, I encourage you to reach out to Vance Blew. He is a true professional and will have your best interest at heart. Buying a home is a big decision, so if you have any additional questions, please feel free to contact me at 678-358-0483. You will never regret calling Vance for all your real estate financing needs.
