

In regards to:

Jim Tilghman (Tilghman Constructors)

The last time our kitchen was renovated was in the mid-90s. We liked the overall look and layout of our kitchen, but the countertops were dark, dull, and dated. We contacted a few contractors, but ultimately chose Jim Tilghman because of the excellent feedback that we had heard from friends and colleagues.

Not only was Jim on target with our budget, but he went above and beyond in order to make sure everything went smoothly. Every aspect of the demo and installation was well timed. So much so, that we were without our kitchen for less than 48 hours. There were also some custom considerations that we wanted, which Jim was able to accommodate, that makes our kitchen even better than it was before.

I have already recommended Jim Tilghman Constructors to our neighbors, as well as the office manager at an affiliates office. Jim will be the first person I contact for all our future renovations.
