Dear Lisa,

You wonderful job of helping me through the complex process of selling my house. We had several offers, and because of how you explained the benefits and drawbacks of each offer I was able to easily decide which one to accept.

You responded quickly to phone calls. You answered all of my questions knowledgeably and understandably. I am really grateful at how easy you made selling my house.

I will highly recommend you to family and friends in need of a residential real estate agent.

Thank you so much for all of your help.

Best Regards,

Wesley Anderson
