To all concerned: this letter is to confirm we {the Air Conditioning Doctors of America Inc. team} do "Endorse" Martin Gonzales of NgT technology as being an efficient professional that completes technological help for Business's.

I called Martin out to my business because our phone system was not working efficiently.

Before Martin came to my shop, we were constantly on the phone with robo calls and telemarketers - We were fighting to get free time to answer our customers' requests ...

The phone system that Martin set our company up with has saved us incredible amounts of time and our customers are able to get a quicker response.

Martin's service has always been quick and efficient. If we called about any tech queries he has answered immediately with a smile in his voice or returned our call promptly. When we have needed any questions answered on more options, he has always come up with great solution quickly.

NGT has also helped bring our companies computers up to today's technologies and standards.

We are Glad to have found Martin at Powercore because, he is a great help with our technological needs.

Thanks: Martin Gonzalez with NGT Technology.
