

Doug,

Our meeting was timed fortuitously as I had just begun my search for a new vehicle and was not looking forward to the process. I have purchased several vehicles in the past and using your services changed something I saw as an undesirable chore into something I enjoyed.

After providing you with my desired vehicle specs, I was impressed with the amount of information you had and how quickly you found vehicles that matched my needs.

I was even more impressed during the negotiations with regard to the number of items that you knew to ask the dealer about, which saved me considerable money.

I also appreciated the fact that through the ordering process you were able to ask the appropriate questions to determine the delivery time frames and kept me abreast of the changes.

I am happy to say that I am driving the vehicle I wanted, purchased for less than I anticipated, with a lower APR that was originally offered, and covered by a warranty you expertly negotiated down with specific knowledge that I did not possess.

Thank you,
