To whom it may concern,

May 15, 2019

I want to take a moment to recognize the great work of Kriston Sellier of id8, the branding and marketing agency in Marietta. I met Kriston about a year ago through a group called PowerCore and recently I hired her agency to do some work for me.

I needed some images I own graphically rendered in a way that make the work I do look even more professional. These designs would be used in my marketing and displayed on my website, in multiple presentations, and on all of my social media platforms.

Kriston assigned a graphic designer to work with and we sat down to discuss my 'project'. I know it was small by id8's standards but it was a big deal to me, especially when one considers how broadly I planned to use these images. My clients are very discerning and my expectations were high.

The graphic designer was very professional and asked all of the right questions to guide the way I thought about how the images looked and how they were to be used. In all, id8 rendered 11 different images that I now use in many presentations. In the last 2 weeks, I have used 3 of the images id8 created in training sessions with more than 400 people. The work is very professional and spot on to my brand.

Kriston and her staff are extremely professional and thorough. As I said, they asked a lot of questions to get at the heart of my objectives. I was pleased immediately with their work after I saw the rendered images. But what surprised me was the follow up call from Kriston to ask if I was pleased with the work, their service and their overall customer experience. I told her I couldn't be more pleased.

As a business owner, I am always looking for reliable people to collaborate with and to refer to. The work id8 created for me lends an air of credibility to my business, and me and I am grateful for the great work id8 performed for me.

I whole-heartedly recommend Kriston Sellier and id8!

Sincerely,

Jeff Bartholomew
