Tim Cowan loves his family, the Clemson Tigers, and real estate. Tim's knowledge of the Atlanta real estate market is remarkable. As a real estate investor seeking guidance, every piece of advice Tim Cowan has provided, some of which I heeded and some of which I unfortunately didn't, has been spot on.

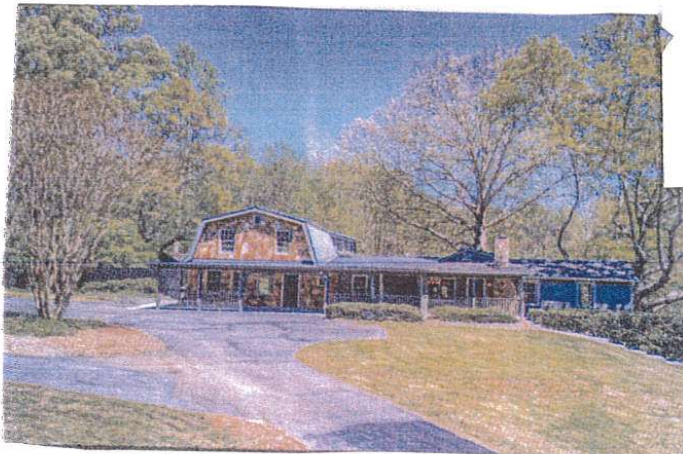

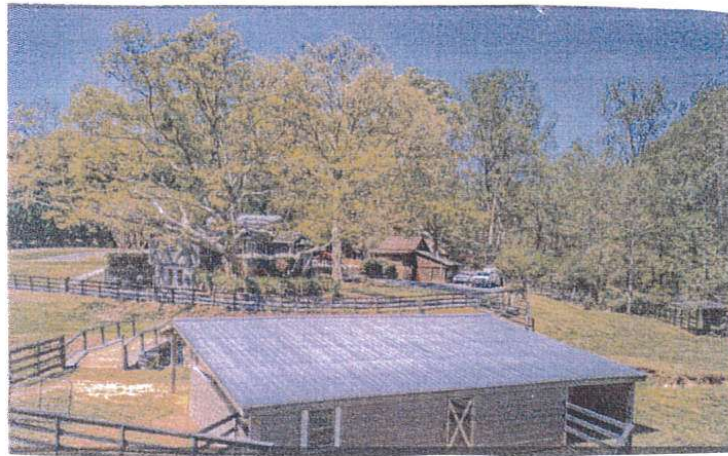

For investors seeking property with income capacity and potential for appreciation, and for property owners seeking to list a property for sale with the most effective and wide reaching marketing plan possible, it is smart to call Tim or Jennifer at the Cowan Connection.
