Clemson Fans (& Haters),

Some people cannot get over the 2015 NCAA Football results, but what I can't get over is how AWESOME of a Realtor Tim Cowan is! My wife & I purchased our first home last year with Tim as our Realtor and the process was smoother than either of us expected. There are 7 reasons I would recommend Tim to anyone buying a home;

Communicative: Not once did we need to ask, what's next or what's happening?

Lucid: Tim is easy to understand and even easier to get along with.

Enthusiasm: Tim & his team LOVE what they do and it shows!

Meticulous: Not only did Tim notice every detail but explained why it was important.

Systematic: Nothing ever came as a surprise and we always knew where to get what we needed.

Open: With great tact Tim was frank and helped us be realistic without belittling.

Negotiations: Tim diplomatically got us a deal better than what we told him we wanted.

Tim might have been felt let down at the championship game, but he won't disappoint in making you feel like a champion buyer!

Sincerely,

Tommy Schlosser

P.S. Picking Tim is still paying off. Early in January we got a letter from him with some documents simply stating that we needed to put this with our taxes forms, the next week our accountant asked for them.
