Dear Barry;

Thank you so much for referring us to Norm Hatke to help us in the search for our first home. He made the entire process so easy and stress-free, always asking lots of questions and always making sure we were on the right track. We were particularly impressed with his willingness to help us any time we needed it; nights, weekends, whenever. He was always available, and happy, to show us a home every time we called. His service was truly exceptional.

Norm was very honest with us, explaining the benefits of certain features, and also explaining the drawbacks of other not-so-desirable "benefits." He worked so hard for us that we felt as though we were his only clients (we know that he is very busy with other buyers, but we never felt rushed.) When we picked a home to buy, his analysis was totally focused on us. We are very happy first-time homeowners.

We will heartily recommend Norm to any friends, family or co-workers looking to buy a home anywhere in the Atlanta area. Thanks again Barry.

Sincerely,
