To Whom It May Concern:

For anyone who needs a disability insurance policy, I can highly recommend Howard Silvermintz of InsurAtlanta.

Being self-employed, I needed a personal disability insurance policy. My business requires me to meet with clients to show products within their home or business. If I was injured and could no longer carry samples, I would be unable to meet with my clients and my income would drop dramatically.

When discussing policy options, Howard took the time to fully understand my expenses, assets, and the amount of income I would need to meet my obligations, should I be unable to work. Based on this information, he proposed several options that would meet my needs.

My thanks to Howard for taking the extra time needed to help me select the best policy for my situation and I highly recommend Howard to anyone who needs a disability policy.

Regards,
Ed
