

Daniel was referred to me by my mortgage broker after closing on my new home in April. I've been in insurance for the last decade, only briefly in Property and Casualty myself. Daniel was immediately the right fit. He was quick, responsive, intuitive, thorough- all of what I am in my own business. His recommendation was exactly what we all hope to achieve- better value at a better rate. The choice was simple because he took my checklist and gave me the clear-cut solution. He's why I'm now a member of PowerCore. Your referrals will get an efficient expert every time with Daniel.
