To whom it may concern,

Recently, Ron Goodnow and his company, Painter 1, took on the task of painting my personal home. Our home was badly in need of a fresh coat of paint and had some areas requiring repair. One such issue was a soffit on the side of the house where a gutter overflowed and caused some wood to rot.

Ron personally inspected the property with me, allowing me to point out areas needing attention. He ensured that all necessary repairs were included in the painting project, all while offering a very fair price.

Our initial meeting was on a Friday, and by the following Monday, Ron had a crew ready to start the job.

Despite encountering a few challenges typical of such projects, Ron handled them promptly and with a sense of urgency. His proactive approach to problem-solving was evident throughout. I never had to wonder about his whereabouts or his commitment to the job; his communication was consistently clear and timely.

The foreman overseeing the project kept me updated regularly, informing me of their daily progress and asking if there were any additional concerns to address.

In the end, Painter 1 completed the job with meticulous attention to detail and a genuine desire to ensure our satisfaction. I wouldn't hesitate to hire them again!

Sincerely,
