Sontanja Scott is my rock star closing attorney! I presented her an executed contract on a Tuesday and asked her how quickly we could close. This was not just your ordinary scenario! The Seller of the property is currently living in a remote part Indonesia. Her father here in the US was acting as her power of attorney. The title needed to be checked. Condominium documents needed to be ordered and delivered. The title company had to sign off on the power of attorney to make sure they could deliver title insurance to the Buyer. Closing paperwork needed to be completed. And to complicate matters more there are currently tenants living in the property. We closed last Friday after Sontanja had the file for only nine business days! Sontanja was a pleasure to work with and communicated with me every step of the way!

Thank you Sotanja!
