RE: Endorsement Letter

Dear Dr. Smith;

Being a personal injury attorney and a son of a chiropractor, I have personally referred people for chiropractic care and used chiropractic treatment for many years. Overall, I can say that you separate yourself from the rest. After speaking with you and some of your patients, I can tell that you are one of the most caring and knowledgeable chiropractors out there. Your patients are not just a number to you, and I can tell you truly do care about getting your patients better by the quickest means possible, even if that means referring them to other doctors.

From the people I have referred to you from car wreck cases, the feedback I get is how much they all appreciate the time you take explaining what is happening to them. Because of you, many of my client's have gotten the care they needed at an affordable price.

In addition to working together, we have become friends over the years, and I cherish that friendship and hope it continues for many more.

Sincerely,

/s/ Michael J. Lonati Jr.
